

Opportunities to Get Involved in Waiheke Food Resilience Initiatives

Volunteer with Blackpool Community Garden, Ostend Community Garden or Surfdale Food Forest. Join the monthly working bees on Sundays at each location or help in your own time. Facebook | Instagram | Contact homegrownwaiheke@gmail.com

Volunteer at Compost Co's site at Te Motu on Mondays and Thursdays from 9:30am-1pm. Please bring water, work clothes and closed-toe shoes with you. Website | Contact composting@wrt.org.nz or 09 372 2915

Volunteer at Home Grown Waiheke Trust's GROW stall on Saturday at the Ostend Market. You can also get involved by dropping off your surplus produce to the stall. Facebook | Contact homegrownwaiheke@gmail.com

Volunteer at the Kai Conscious Café on a Friday from 11am-1pm and then join us for a community meal of rescued kai. Facebook | Website

Volunteer for Kelp Gardeners. Scuba divers need to be certified with recent experience. Snorkelers need to be strong swimmers. Everyone does an orientation and checkout dive/snorkel before being accepted. Facebook

Volunteer at Piritahi Marae's māra kai on Wednesday mornings from 8:30-11am. Facebook

Volunteer for Te Huruhi's Garden to Table programme on Tuesday mornings from 8:30-11am during Term time. You must be police-vetted. Contact simonwrightvet@hotmail.com

Volunteer with Meat Free Mondays Waiheke. Join us creating fun activities that help the planet. Facebook | Contact Amanda on 021 102 7317

Take part in Waiheke crop swap by bringing produce, seedlings, baking and other items along to the meetings. Facebook | Contact waihekecropswap@gmail.com

Sell or purchase your organic produce at the Waiheke co-operative. Facebook | Contact info@waihekecoop.nz

Purchase organic products, have tea and buy a local artist's work at Greenspace. It is open Tuesday - Saturday from 10am-4pm and evenings for events. Facebook | Website

Donate goods to Waiheke Budgeting Services. It is open Tuesday - Friday from 9am-2pm. Facebook | Website